GIVERS BELL (RARE)

Most children are not givers. Most children are takers. The "Gift Giver" gives without asking for anything in return for themselves. Out of all the sleigh bells at the North Pole this is the most precious bell, because only people who get this bell are the "Gift Givers." This bell identifies you to all the special people in the world, that when we see this bell, we know you are a "Gift Giver."

GIVERS BELL (RARE)

Most children are not givers. Most children are takers. The "Gift Giver" gives without asking for anything in return for themselves. Out of all the sleigh bells at the North Pole this is the most precious bell, because only people who get this bell are the "Gift Givers." This bell identifies you to all the special people in the world, that when we see this bell, we know you are a "Gift Giver."

GIVERS BELL (RARE)

Most children are not givers. Most children are takers. The "Gift Giver" gives without asking for anything in return for themselves. Out of all the sleigh bells at the North Pole this is the most precious bell, because only people who get this bell are the "Gift Givers." This bell identifies you to all the special people in the world, that when we see this bell, we know you are a "Gift Giver."

GIVERS BELL (RARE)

Most children are not givers. Most children are takers. The "Gift Giver" gives without asking for anything in return for themselves. Out of all the sleigh bells at the North Pole this is the most precious bell, because only people who get this bell are the "Gift Givers." This bell identifies you to all the special people in the world, that when we see this bell, we know you are a "Gift Giver."

GIVERS BELL (RARE)

Most children are not givers. Most children are takers. The "Gift Giver" gives without asking for anything in return for themselves. Out of all the sleigh bells at the North Pole this is the most precious bell, because only people who get this bell are the "Gift Givers." This bell identifies you to all the special people in the world, that when we see this bell, we know you are a "Gift Giver."

